Can't Guess the Rules

Traditional Approach:

Make observations $\Rightarrow$ Guess equations.

Example: Brahe and Kepler observe planetary motion.
Newton guesses law of gravitation.

Alternative Approaches:

If observed phenomena are noisy or irregular, very difficult to guess equations. What to do???

1. Statistics
2. Computation Theory
3. Information Theory